NEWS AROUND NANAIMO.

A Naas River Fisherman Missing—Other Happenings at the Coal City.

NANAIMO, March 7.—Rev. A. E. Green received a letter from Naas river, telling of the strange disappearance of Charles Snaggs, a wealthy trader of Naas river. It appears Snaggs has a large fish trade at the river, and in October last he shipped a quantity of salmon by the steamer Boscowitz to Victoria, accompanying it to make return purchases. He bought $1200 worth of goods at the Capital and sent them on board the boat. The vessel was delayed awaiting the arrival of the Islander, so nearly all the passengers went on shore, and among them Snaggs; after waiting about two and a half hours, the Boscowitz departed, but Snaggs had been left behind and has not since been seen. All his goods have arrived at their destination and are still there. It has been ascertained that he had stopped in a cabin at Victoria belonging to William Parker, of the Prince of Wales Saloon. Snaggs is the owner of 160 acres of good land, besides having other valuable property. It is generally believed that he has met with foul play. Rev. A. E. Green went to Victoria last Wednesday and laid the matter before the Attorney-General, who in turn referred him to Superintendent Langley, who is working up the case.

BASEBALL CLUB.

The Nanaimo Athletic Association have made arrangements for a baseball club to be started among its members to play during the coming summer. They have sent away for a practical pitcher to complete their already competent team, and will go into practice at once. The boys are determined this year to make a name for themselves; last year they did exceedingly well with the few teams that visited this city. It is probable the opening match will be played with a Victoria nine in this city. A meeting of members will be held and the final arrangements made.

IN HARD TRAINING.

Steward is undergoing hard training for his match with Smith on Saturday, in this city, and the general impression is that he will be victorious. McLeod, his trainer, took him out on the water yesterday, and gave him a good spin for about ten miles. McLeod states, "I don't know who is going to win, but I mean to bet on Steward. I have already put up the stakes, and the man who wins it will have to work very hard.

ENGLISHMAN'S RIVER BRIDGE COMPLETED.

Mr. J. Love, who superintended the construction of the bridge across Englishman's river, reports the work completed. The new bridge occupies the same site as the one washed away by the freshet last year. The present structure is 450 feet long, being 200 feet longer than the old bridge, while the entire structure is 4 feet higher. The bridge is built in a most substantial manner, and it will take a very heavy freshet indeed to tear it from its present foundations.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

A prize fight is said to have taken place near the city, but nothing so far has been learned of the result.

Several cases of drunk were disposed of by Mr. J. P. Pianta, S.M., yesterday.

A miner named A. Wagstaff while working in the Northfield mine yesterday was kicked in the jaw by a mule.

The hotel proprietor who tried to rescue a prisoner from the officer at Golden, appeared at Donald and was fined $10 and costs.

LONDON NEWS.

CLERICAL INTERFERENCE IN IRISH POLITICS.

Attempt at Poisoning—German Fleet to Be Sent to Chilian Waters—The Malta Affair to Be Thoroughly Investigated—The Labor Movement in Belgium.

LONDON, April 7.—The feeling of uneasiness which has gained ground amongst the English Liberals as to the clerical interference in Irish politics, has been loudly voiced by Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice, in an address to the Reading Liberals. Lord Fitzmaurice said that, Protestant as he was, he desired to recognize that Ireland was chiefly a Roman Catholic country, but they must equally bear in mind that Ireland was not altogether Roman Catholic, and that a place must be kept secure for the Protestants in the politics of the country. He added that it was most desirable that nothing should be done to increase the difficulties of the situation by striking the note of ecclesiastical bigotry. Lord Edmond's apprehensions are widely shared by the English non-conformists as well as the Irish Protestants, and the slurs on the Orangemen in the Sligo contest have greatly tended to exasperate that order.

AN ATTEMPT AT POISONING.

A horrible attempt at agrarian crime is reported from Wicklow. A farmer named Jackson, who occupied an evicted farm, was expected to take tea with a neighbor named Driver. A girl named Julia Murphy, in the employ of Driver, poured corosive sublimate into the tea. She was detected before anybody drank the poison and confessed, and said that she had been prompted to the act by other parties.

WILL VISIT BERLIN.

The Grand Duke of Luxemburg has solicited and obtained permission from the Kaiser to visit Berlin about the end of this month. The Grand Duke of Baden has fitted up a magnificent residence in Berlin, which the visitor will occupy while residing there as commander of the Brigade of Guards. The relations between Germany and Luxemburg are being watched with much jealousy in France, but they are every day becoming closer.

GERMANY TO SEND A FLEET TO CHILI.

It appears that Chancellor Capivi's resolution to send a strong fleet to Chilian waters was prompted by the news received at Hamburg of the treatment to which German vessels were being subjected. The insurgents' fleet have seized a German bark loaded with coal and carried it off. The interference of the British fleet caused the bark to be released, the coal, however, being taken and well paid for. The objections of the British merchant vessels were sufficient to prevent any further interference without an appeal to the fleet.

A GENERAL STRIKE PROBABLE.

The Belgium Workmen's party, now in session at Brussels, is considering the question of a general strike. It was originally fixed for April 1, but postponed to await the action of the Miners' International Congress. The Congress, however, has done nothing, and the Belgium workmen still hesitate to sacrifice Belgium industry in the general cause of the latter. The cessation of the manufacturers of Belgium will afford a golden opportunity to the depressed industries of England and France, with which Belgium enters into cheaper competition. A number of partial strikes are already going on in different parts of Belgium, but apparently without concerted action.

PERSENTED 50,000 MARKS.

Among the Berlin stories of the Guelph fund is one to the effect that Prince Bismarck presented 50,000 marks from the fund to the chief of the secret political police, in return for and in recognition of his services in carrying out the personal aims of Bismarck.

GERMANY AND ENGLAND PROTEST.

The German and British Governments have protested against the imposition by Servia of new and enormous taxes on imports.

Australian Federation.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., April 6.—Although the constitution adopted by the federation convention was at first received by the people with every sign of approval, and in many instances with pronounced manifestations of delight, in the belief that a great nation had been born, evidences are now accumulating that it is not universally acceptable. Since the people have had time to study its details a strong feeling of discontent has arisen in the western and southern colonies. Delegate Baker, of South Australia, believes the scheme of federation to be a grand one in most respects, but expresses fears that the sparsely populated colonies will refuse to ratify it in its present form owing to the restrictions placed upon the senate, which prevents that body from neutralizing the power of the more densely populated colonies, which have a preponderance of the representation in the Lower House. Though Mr. Baker believes internal jealousies will militate greatly against the immediate realization of the hopes of the promoters of the scheme, he is nevertheless confident that national federation will be effected, even if the plan agreed upon by the convention has to be considerably modified. Sir Henry Parkes is highly elated over the success of the scheme, which he believes to be the last great act of his life, and entertains the most sanguine hopes for the future federation of Australia.

"Collers and Cuts'" Health.

LONDON, April 6.—Considerable anxiety again exists among the members of the Royal Family and in court circles concerning the health of Prince Albert Victor, the eldest son of the Prince of Wales, and heir presumptive of the British crown. The Prince has been obliged to leave the headquarters at York of his regiment, the 10th (the Prince of Wales Own), Hussars, in which he holds the rank of Major. He goes to the Curragh military district Ireland, where he will be attached to one of the three cavalry regiments there.

"Isonomy" Dead.

LONDON, April 6.—The celebrated stallion "Isonomy," whose sire, "Stirling," died last week, is dead. Many turf goers believe that "Isonomy" was the grandest stallion of modern times. He was foaled in 1865; in 1866 he was sold for 360 guineas, and in 1873 he was again sold for 9000 guineas. Since that time he has remained in the stables of the Duchess of Montrose. It is probable that his aggregate earnings were 250,000 guineas. His stud services were booked to the end of 1892 at 250 guineas for each service.

A New Rumor About Parnell.

LONDON, April 6.—A sensational rumor was afloat to-day, in the lobby of the House of Commons, to the effect that Parnell has been privately married since the O'Shea divorce proceedings, and not to Mrs. O'Shea. Parnellites who have been questioned on the subject refuse to discuss it, but say that the mystery of their leader's inner life, often referred to as tending to clear his character from the stain upon it, will shortly be explained.

Relief For Poor of Ireland.

DUBLIN, April 6.—The Countess of Zetland, wife of the Viceroy of Ireland, and Miss Balfour, sister of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, have started on a tour of the distressed district of the western part of the country. Both ladies have been very active in the collection and distribution of funds for the relief of the suffering poor of Ireland.

William Will Try Yacht Racing.

BERLIN, April 7.—Emperor William has purchased the celebrated Scotch cutter-yacht Thistle, and it is expected that he will enter the boat in the great race for Queen's cup, which takes place place off the Isle of Wight. In the race for the American cup the Thistle was defeated by the American yacht Volunteer.

Sir Charles Leaves for England.

Special to the TIMES.

OTTAWA, April 7.—A special from Washington says that the interview of the Canadian Ministers with Secretary Blaine lasted but a few minutes. President Harrison wanted to be present, but he was not home and nothing was done. Messrs. Foster and Thompson left Washington yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, and Sir Charles Tupper for England.

NEGOTIATIONS SUSPENDED

In Order That President Harrison May Take His Little Trip.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The preliminary negotiations between Secretary Blaine and the representatives of the Canadian Government who arrived in Washington yesterday, toward a settlement of the reciprocity matter and other questions of mutual interest to the United States and Canada are suspended for the present. The suspension, however, is not the result of any serious differences of opinion between the respective negotiators, but the result of a desire of President Harrison to be in Washington while the negotiations are on. As the President will leave on his southern and western tour on the 14th inst., he would have been out of the city most of, if not the whole time the conferences were being held, had the original intention as to the negotiations been carried out. Shortly before noon to-day, Sir Charles Tupper, High Commissioner for Canada in London; Sir John S. D. Thompson, Canadian Minister of Justice, and Hon. G. E Foster, Minister of Finance, who are to represent the Canadian Government in the negotiations, left here for the residence of Sir Julian Pounceforte, British Minister; then proceeding in company with Sir Julian to the residence of Secretary Blaine. After the usual courtesies had been exchanged, Mr. Blaine told the commissioners that on account of the disposition of the President in the matter, he would be obliged to ask for the suspension of the negotiations for the present.

SAD DEATH

Of a Young Bridegroom—Shot on His Wedding Day.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Anton Henry was married at the East Railway station early last evening. He lies dead this morning with a bullet in his brain. The wedding ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, and there was a throng of friends present, who had a good time. In the midst of the feast, the bride and groom started for their carriage to take the train for their honeymoon trip, and the guests crowded to the door with rice and old shoes to bid them God speed. For an instant young Henry and his bride stood at the open carriage door, shaking hands with some late comers, and there was cheering and chatting and bustle all around. Meanwhile Henry Mentz, a friend of the groom, had taken a revolver from his pocket which he thought was loaded only with blank cartrides, and meant to fire a salute. He is believed to have been somewhat the worse for wine. A pistol shot rang out upon the night air. The man had fired too low, and Henry fell to the sidewalk. A moment later he had breathed his last. His bride fainted and the merrymakers stood for an instant stunned; then the doctor was sent for and the bodies of the bride and groom were borne within the house. To those who carried Anton in it was evident that he was dead. In half an hour the young wife had regained consciousness. Mentz is locked up.

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers, and they are also certain to bring with them cold in the head, which if neglected, develops into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will permanently cure the worst case of catarrh if faithfully used. Sold by all dealers.

FATAL BLAZE.

RECIPROCITY NEGOTIATIONS INDEFINITELY SUSPENDED.

A Bridegroom Shot on His Wedding Day—One Hundred Thousand Dollar Fire in Albany—No Hope for P. T. Barnum's Recovery—La Grippe in New York.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A special to the evening World says:—P. T. Barnum's condition has changed for the worse this morning, and he is very low. Dr. Loomis, of New York, has been sent for. Dr Hubbard, the attending physician, says that Mr. Barnum can't last much longer.

BRIDGEPORT, Con., April 7.—The following bulletin was issued at 8 o'clock this morning: "Barnum much worse and rapidly failing. He will probably not last 24 hours."

Later—Mr. P. T. Barnum's attending physician, Dr. C. C. Godfrey, has been in attendance upon Mr. Barnum all night. He stated to a United Press reporter at 10 o'clock this morning that he believed the famous showman would not live 24 hours. He has been declining fast since midnight. Mr. Barnum was conscious up to 10 o'clock this morning and recognized those gathered around his bedside. Shortly after eight o'clock Dr. Godfrey aroused him from a slight slumber and told him that the city had gone Republican in yesterday's election. In a feeble voice Mr. Barnum murmured, "I am glad." Dr. Godfrey believes his death will be due to a loss of respiration or heart failure, his respiration and pulse growing weaker every moment and the doctor gives as his opinion that the veteran showman will not last the day through. Mr. Barnum's daughters were expected here this morning, having been telegraphed for.

Natural Gas Explosion.

BRADDOCK, Pa., April 7.—At 4 o'clock this morning an explosion of natural gas occurred in a row of houses in Irwin alley, near 13th street, owned by John Escnler. One house was badly wrecked, and eleven men terribly burned. The physicians say that four of them received fatal injuries. One of them jumped from the second storey window of a building, and was badly cut with glass about the arms and head. His legs and back were sprained by the fall. All the men are Hungarians, and with one exception have families living in the old country. What was left of the buildings and contents by the explosion were destroyed by the fire and water. The explosion is traceable to the neglect of the employes of the Natural Gas Company, in failing to put in proper disconnected house pipes from the street main on which they were working last evening.

La Grippe's Grip.

NEW YORK, April 7.—There were 195 deaths reported during the past 24 hours, of which number, 15 were directly traceable to la grippe. Of the latter number 11 were females. There were 273 policemen on the sick list to-day. All the above figures show an increase over yesterday's report. Several of the garrison at Governor's Island are sufferers from la grippe. Mrs Howard, wife of the Major General, and Colonel Hughes, of General Howard's staff, and Mrs. General Tomkins, have the disease in a severe form.

A False Report.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Secretary Tracy to-day showed a dispatch, published this morning, dated Denver, Col., in which it was stated that Admiral Brown at San Francisco was in receipt of orders from the navy department, instructing him to dispatch the cruiser San Francisco on Wednesday to Chili, and order the return of the Charleston to Honolulu at once. The Secretary stated that the dispatch was without foundation and that no such orders had been issued.

Bank Fails.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., April 7.—Yesterday the Stockbridge Savings Bank was placed in the hands of a receiver. This does not so much result from the defalcation of $79,000 by ex-Treasurer Wills as from the poor loans, amounting to over $40,000, made by the bank's trustees in past years. Wills' speculations will be made good by the bank's surplus and by the $25,000 bonds which he gave. The lose to the depositors will probably be about 20 or 25 per cent.

Suicided.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 7.—John H Stowe, a Philadelphia commission merchant from this city suicided this morning at his home by shooting himself through the heart. He loaded an old gun and with the end of a poker to reach the trigger, he placed the muzzle to his heart and with the poker struck the trigger. Death was instantaneous. Stow was engaged in business in Dock street, Philadelphia.

$100,000 Fire.

ALBANY, N.Y., April 7.—The fire, at 1 p.m., which started in the telephone exchange, 457 Broadway, burned that place and communicated to the fur stores of Cottrell & Leonard and Terrill, adjoining. The damage is about $100,000. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a telephone wire crossing the trolley and electric light wires.

The Coke Region Quiet.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., April 7.—Col. Smith of the 15th regiment of the Pennsylvania National Guards, reports the strikers quiet and orderly throughout the coke region to-day. Labor leaders to-day state that the excitement among the strikers has subsided and they have not the remotest idea of causing any additional trouble.

Back from His Southern Trip.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stanley and Mrs. Stanley's mother, Mrs. Tennant, returned from their southern trip this morning and are at the Plaza hotel. They sail for England on the 15th.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

OUR COMMISSIONERS TO WASHINGTON STRANDED.

The Grand Trunk Railway and Sir Charles Tupper—Trouble in the Militia Department—Sir John Macdonald's Health—The Manitoba School Bill, Etc.

From our own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Ont., March 30.—Sir Chas. Tupper, who, along with Sir John Thompson and the Minister of Finance, Mr. Foster, was ready to leave for Washington more than a week ago, is still here and the time of his departure is unknown even to himself. Whatever may be the true cause of the delay, certain it is that it comes from the Washington authorities. The three gentlemen mentioned had their baggage packed and ready to leave nearly two weeks ago, their departure being duly chronicled in the Government organs. Since that time they have been waiting patiently, as I understand it, to get the consent of the Washington authorities, or rather Mr. Blaine, to give them an interview. That request has so far not been granted, and whether it is conceded finally or not, nobody believes that any good will result from such a conference. The attitude assumed by Sir John Macdonald, his colleagues and followers during the late election makes it impossible for the United States Government, and especially Mr. Blaine, who was most violently and wantonly attacked, with any respect for themselves to have anything to do with the commissioners appointed by the Canadian Premier. Not less objectionable is Mr. Chamberlain, who will represent the Imperial Government, to the United States Government and people. Sir Charles Tupper frothed and foamed after his usual belligerent style, not only during the campaign but since the fight was over, against the United States and particularly Mr. Blaine, who was said to be in league with Canadian rebels and traitors to purchase Canada. Private documents were pilfered and published with flaming headlines in all the organs of the government, to show that such was the case. Under these circumstances, as I have already said, no good can arise from the mission in question. Still the Canadian parliament will demand of the government that they keep their promise when appealing to the country and that was to go to Washington and procure a reciprocity treaty, which was to include none of the objections they maintained were in unrestricted reciprocity. Be it also remembered that the government held they were in communication with the United States authorities regarding this matter, although Mr. Blaine denied that such was the case, writing to the press giving a flat denial to the statement of the Premier. Until parliament will meet we are not likely to know just where the government stands in respect to this matter.

SIR JOHN'S HEALTH.

So much has been said already in the public press to the effect that the Premier was in ill health that when the statement is now made, no matter how accurate it may be, it is always taken as emanating from his political opponents. However this may be there is no doubt but the Premier is in exceedingly poor health and poorer spirits. He visits his office but seldom, and when he does so his stay is as short as possible. Some of his most intimate friends fear that he will be unable to go through the work of the approaching session. The numerous vexed questions which he has to meet when the House assembles do not add to his usually buoyant spirits. At all events, whatever may be the political sins of the aged chieftain, as his friends love to call him, no one wishes him but a long and healthy life.

MANITOBA SCHOOL BILL.

I have already referred to this bill, which evidently will not be interfered with by the Government. However, there is one new aspect of the case and it is that while the ordinary time of disallowance by the Governor-General-in-Council expires on the 11th of April, still the power remains with the Government, according to the Manitoba act, to interfere on the appeal of the minority and afterwards disallow it. The law in regard to education gives the right to the Governor-General-in-Council to protect the minority, even beyond the date when disallowance should ordinarily expire, and in this way education bills differ from ordinary provincial measures. In this way the Government may be able to tide over the existing difficulty and postpone the evil, trusting that in the meantime the courts will settle the matter one way or the other.

THE GRAND TRUNK AND SIR CHARLES.

Mr. Tyler, President of the Grand Trunk Railway, has addressed a communication to the English press, explaining fully what took place between Mr. Sergeant, the general manager, and Sir Charles at the interview in Montreal between the two prior to the general election. It will be remembered that Sir Charles said that the company opposed the Government at the elections because a subsidy of $3,200 per mile was not promised the Temiscouata Railway, which connects with the Grand Trunk from the Maritime Provinces. This, Mr. Tyler states, is wholly untrue. He says that the very reverse was the case, and that Sir Charles called on Mr. Sergeant, and in addition to promising this subsidy, if Mr. Sergeant would issue an order to the employees of the company to vote for the Government candidate, he (Sir Charles) pointed out that this would also be some return for his (Sir Charles) having on all occasions spoken in favor of the Grand Trunk. Mr. Sergeant refused to interfere with the employees, leaving them to vote as they pleased, but he pointed out the great advantages which would accrue to the railway from the adoption of the policy of the Liberal party. The removal of the duty on coal alone would immensely increase the dividend of the company. As for himself, he was inclined to be a Conservative, but his politics were always that of the Grand Trunk. To be brief, Mr. Sergeant gives the High Commissioner the lie direct.

THE MINISTER OF MILITIA.

Sir Adolphe Caron is perpetually in trouble, and now he is at variance with Gen. Herbert commanding the militia. The general has started out with the idea, and a sensible one most people would imagine, of not using the militia of the country for the mere purpose of adding to the influence and strength of the political machine. As a consequence there is trouble between the two, the general insisting that his orders be carried out, while the dude minister courts delay, so as to see what political influence he may obtain from the move; and thus the fight goes heavily on between the heads of the war department.

SLABTOWN.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Late Telegrams from the Eastern Canadian Cities.

It is rumored that Hon. Mr. Garneau, Quebec, will retire into private life, even giving up his seat in the council, and that Dr. Rinfret will succeed him in the councillorship.

The Grand Orange Lodge of British North America will assemble in Kingston on May 28th. Delegates are expected to be present from Ireland, Scotland, Wales, England and Australia.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company has lost one of its most influential and respected officials in the person of Henry Read, Assistant Treasurer, who has just died at his residence in Montreal.

A stabbing affray, resulting in the death of Benj. Hubbard, an employee of Grear's dairy, in London township, Ont., occurred yesterday afternoon. Hubbard and another employee named Hodge got into an altercation over a difference, when Hodge stabbed Hubbard over the heart with a knife which he happened to have in his hand at the time, inflicting a wound from which the latter died in a few minutes after. Both are married men with families.

A collective pastoral letter, on the Manitoba School Act, was read on Sunday at the Basilica, Quebec, at high mass, by Cardinal Taschereau. His eminence, addressing his hearers, said that as long as the Protestants were in the minority in Manitoba, the Catholics respected their rights, but as soon as the Protestants found themselves stronger they adopted laws to deprive the Catholics of their liberty and of their rights, guaranteed them by the constitution of Canada. This, said his eminence, is a state of things that should not be allowed, and against which all good citizens should unite in protesting, for it is their duty, and those in authority were bound to remedy it immediately.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Night Sessions Now the Order, to Finish the Business of the Session.

VICTORIA, 6th April, 1891. The House was called to order at 2 o'clock. Prayers by Rev L. M. Rugg.

The committe on railways reported the Victoria and North American Railway bill without amendments.—Received and ordered to be printed.

It was decided that the House sit to-morrow night, instead of to-night, as the Attorney-General was unwell, and it was important he should be present.

The Speaker gave the following ruling: Upon a point raised by the Hon. the Leader of the Opposition, I rule that the act to declare valid certain by-laws passed by the municipal council of the Municipality of Surrey, cannot be considered as a public bill. Rule 50 of our rules and orders expressly lays it down that bills "for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former act," can only be introduced as a private bill, and after the publication of the usual notices. The bill in question aims to indemnify the municipal council of the Municipality of Surrey for having exceeded the powers conferred by the "Municipal Act, 1889." May, page 768, 9th edition, says that bills for "enlarging or altering the powers of charters and corporations" are private bills of the first class. And on page 745, same edition, says, that whether a bill "be for the interest of an individual, a public company or corporation, a parish, a city or county, or other locality, it is equally distinguished from a measure of public policy in which the whole community are interested." I rule that the order for the second reading of said bill cannot be moved.

Adjourned committee Mineral Bill, Mr. Foster in the chair.

A long discussion arose over clause 85, which provides that the share of a partner who shall fail to keep up his free miner's certificate shall become vested in his partners. Mr. Semlin held that if any forfeiture took place it should be to the Crown, if anyone. Mr. Martin held the same, and wanted the clause struck out. The clause was allowed to stand. Among the other amendments adopted the following were some of the more important: By Mr. Smith, to have the record offices open upon such days and hours as the Lieut.-Governor-in Council may from time to time appoint, and, failing any particular appointment shall be kept open; also that "any company of free miners who locate and record adjoining mineral claims to be worked by them in company as a mining partnership, as provided in part III. of this Act, shall be allowed to perform upon any one of such claims all the work required to entitle them to a certificate of work done for each claim held by such company, and upon being satisfied by affidavit, setting out fully the particulars of such work, that it is equal to one hundred dollars for each claim held by such company the Mining Recorder shall issue a certificate for work for each of such claims."

Mr. Kellie moved that section 89 be struck out down to and including the word "debtor," on line 11, and insert therefor the following:—"Any partner making default in payment of his proportionate share of the annual work required by section 24 of this Act, after receiving a notice specifying the amount due by him, shall, if such amount be correct, be personally liable therefor to the partnership, and his interest in the partnership may be sold in default of payment for the debt." Lost.

The committee reported progress and rose.

Hon. Mr. Robson presented the following returns:

Returns of ballot paper account made by each provincial returning officer in 1890 to the registrar of the Supreme Court.

Returns relating to orders-in-council and correspondence between the Provincial Government and Dominion Government in regard to disallowance or otherwise of statutes of 1890.

Returns relating to opening of toll trail from bounoary to Alaska to a point north of Lynn Canal, B.C.

The act to amend the Assessment Act was read a third time and passed.

The House adjourned at 5:40.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

By Mr. Kellie—to ask for correspondence, orders-in-council, etc., between the Government and the Dominion Government or other persons concerning the refusal by the Dominion Government to issue Crown Grants for mineral claims on the "20-mile belt" in the Province because of alleged defects in the surveys of such claims or any other clauses relating thereto.

A FLUTTER OF EXCITEMENT IN MONTREAL!

An Aged Citizen Surprises His Numerous Friends!

Business Men and Citizens Generally Express Astonishment!

Unlooked for events in Montreal from time to time occur, which for a few days furnish food for conversation and newspaper articles for thousands of talkers and readers.

It can, however, be asserted with safety, that for years past no item of information has caused so much excitement, astonishment, and comment, as the letter published a few weeks ago, written by an aged citizen—a gentleman of high social standing, and one possessed of the most amiable qualities, and who is almost as well known as Montreal's present popular mayor.

Mr. B. Hutchins, of the firm of B. Hutchins & Co., is well known in connection with his large business, as a Real Estate, Rental and Financial Agent. He is known by all classes interested in the buying and selling of city property in Montreal; and the citizens entrust to him their properties, knowing that they can always confide in his ripe, good judgment, strict integrity, and vast business experience.

Mr. Hutchins suffered periodically for 50 years with neuralgia in his head, and rheumatism in his arms. We can imagine the terrible tortures he must have endured for so many years; the weary, darksome nights he passed; and the long, tiresome days experienced, made up of pain and business. To add to intensity of suffering, Mr. Hutchins was afflicted with nervousness, and his memory was at times impaired.

We stand amazed, when we calmly think of his sufferings; and cannot but admire his heroism and great tenacity of life.

But happier, better days were awaiting the aged martyr and hero. Providence was kind and mindful of him as the days rolled on, and after his fortitude and courage had been sufficiently tested, this same Providence directed his attention, to what proved to be to him the "Aqua Vitæ"—the "Water of Life."

Mr. Hutchins' faith, notwithstanding previous triats and failures with other remedies and treatment, was strong and bold enough to take hold of the remedy that had raised up in the past thousands from the deep and miry clay of despondency. Such faith is indeed, well worthy of success in man or woman. As the outcome of this great faith in a grand and life-giving preparation, what is the result to-day?

Mr. Hutchins' letter, which we now give, speaks volumes; it leads to a serious contemplation; it directs to the path of duty; it plainly points out that living fountain—that healing pool; those cleansing waters, from which all the young and old, the rich and poor, may drink and become new mortals. Mr. Hutchins says:

Office of B. Hutchins & Co., Real Estate, Rental and Financial Agents, Room 201, first flat, New York Life Building, Place d'Armes Square.
MONTREAL, P.Q., Dec. 29th, 1890.

Messrs. Wells & Richardson Co.

GENTLEMEN, — I have very great pleasure in adding my testimony to the great merits of "Paine's Celery Compound." I have been a great sufferer, periodically, for fifty years with Neuralgia in my head and Rheumatism in my arms; and now, at an advanced age, after taking a few bottles of this "Celery Compound," I am entirely free from both. Moreover, for over twenty years past I have been unable to use my forefinger in writing through nervousness, and to-day I can do so. My nerves are much strengthened, my memory is improved, and altogether I feel greatly invigorated. I can, therefore, recommend the use of "Paine's Celery Compound" to all who are suffering from Neuralgia, Rheumatism and Nervous Debility. Yours respectfully,
B. HUTCHINS.

The above are not the idle, boastful words of the young and foolish. They are not the gushings of one financially interested in a scheme for money-making, or for notoriety; neither are they the words of a man who has been paid a price for the sake of booming an article of no intrinsic value. That great modern preparation, Paine's Celery Compound, requires no such efforts; and its proprietors will never allow spurious testimonials to be used or published, to entrap and deceive the unwary and suffering.

The words of the above letter are penned by a gentleman above reproach, and too well known to Montrealers for probity and uprightness, to lend himself to deception and fraud.

Have you, reader, experienced any of the symptoms which have for years threatened Mr. Hutchins' life? Have you a used-up feeling; a weary, tired brain; sleeplessness; a restless, disturbed mind; palpitating nerves; defective memory; a tiresome feeling when you get out of bed every morning? These troubles all lead to fearful consequences—terrible diseases. Neglect of them rapidly brings on disordered and softened brain; a broken-down nervous system; morbidness; hysteria; paralysis; insanity, and exhaustion of nature. Is it not your earnest desire to avoid all these fearful ills which lead direct to death and the grave?

You have now before you a mighty proof of the efficacy of Paine's Celery Compound, and the opportunity of laying hold of a fresh existence. This God-given remedy is a purely vegetable preparation, culled from the lap of Nature. It builds up the weak and shattered nerves, it gives sweet and natural sleep, bodily and mental vigor, and thoroughly rejuvenates. Try it, weary and suffering one, and be a partaker of those blessings which only this wonderous remedy can bestow.

A Great Blessing.

SIRS,—I have taken three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and find it a good medicine for constipation and poor appetite. I will continue taking it, as it is a great blessing and I feel a great change in my health since taking it. MRS. J. V. GREEN,
5 Sydenham street, Toronto, Ont.

"The Jersey Lily."

Is what Millais christened his famous portrait of that celebrated woman who since became familiarly known to the public by that expressive and appropriate name. In turn she has coupled her fame with that of the most celebrated toilette article in existence, as witness what she say:—

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L.B., July 2

Gentlemen,—Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sky.

Yours faithfully,
LILLIE LANGTRY.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW.

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

MORAL OBLIQUITY.

The moral obliquity of some of our contemporaries, particularly those who regard it their duty to defend and apologise for the methods of Sir JOHN MACDONALD, would lead one to suspect that they were utter strangers to the Decalogue. And, indeed, it could be wished for their own sake that such was indubitably the case, for, if with the facilities the Tories have had for acquiring virtue they have failed to imbibe it, the extreme narrowness of their moral limitations must have been the cause. But it is to be feared that no such construction can be put on the moral limitations of our Tory friends. It is more than probable that they have some idea of the obligations imposed by the Decalogue, and that their failure to observe them is the consistent result of well matured policy. We are brought to make these observations, not because we differ from the Tory press politically, but because it deliberately ignores the simple principle of common honesty. The Tory press cannot be persuaded, nor driven into passing adversely upon the rascals within its own party. For the crimes of its political leaders the Tory press has neither eyes nor ears. It will admit nothing which reflects on the moral status of the party it represents. To cite a case in point, the TIMES recently discussed the possibility of appealing to bayonets as a means of overcoming the disgraceful methods employed by Tory politicians to defeat the will of the people. From this purely speculative view the Vancouver Telegram not merely dissents, but treats the question with a lack of candour and an airness equivalent to a flat denial of Tory crookedness.

What are the facts? There has been fraud everywhere. In West Northumberland, North Wellington, North Perth, South Grey, Marquette, and elsewhere, scandalous frauds have been attempted. In North Bruce the Tory member elect, was gazetted before the recount had taken place—a breach of the statute. In the Norfolks there are suspicious developments. Mr. JOHN CHARLTON addressed a letter to the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, of which the following is an excerpt:

"Will you kindly explain to me how it happens the return of Mr. David Tisdale of South Norfolk was gazetted last Saturday, while the return for North Norfolk is not gazetted?

"I trust that your explanation will be such as to render unpleasant reference to the matter in the House unnecessary."

Since the return of Sir JOHN MACDONALD to power the following devices have been brought into existence, that public opinion might be thwarted, and his party impregnably entrenched in power:

1. The change in the law permitting the appointment of partisan returning officers.

2. The gerrymander, mutilating the political map of Ontario out of human recognition.

3. The Franchise Act, putting the electoral lists into the hands of partisans, and entailing enormous expense upon Liberal candidates and Liberal organisations.

4. The use of the public money in the purchase of constituencies by railway subsidies and public works.

5. The stealing of seats and plundering of ballot boxes by hired heelers through timely official irregularity and neglect.

6. The withholding of Liberal names from the Official Gazette, in order to give a Tory an advantage in the entering of protests.

7. The stealing of private letters, espionage of the mails, and dogging of Liberal politicians and official sympathisers with the Liberal party in the hotels and on the streets.

Now, the paper that can disregard an arraignment of this sort, an arraignment based on stubborn facts, has no moral sense to speak of, and what is worse is contributing to the dragging down of journalism to the level of the men who engage in politics only to debauch it.

PROFESSING CHRISTIANS ARRAIGNED.

The Rev. W. S. RAINSFORD, a gentleman not unknown to fame in Canada, but who now occupies the pulpit of St. George's church, New York, discusses in the April Forum "What can we do for the Poor?" The reverend gentleman, in the course of his remarks, belabors the church. He accuses it of "having deserted the field where the strife is hottest." "The feeble line of missions that they support," says he, "are as incapable of making any lasting impression on the huddled, heathen, sometimes hungry, masses of working folk, who are fast becoming indifferent to religion, as a skirmish line would have been of holding Plevna. The poor forget the church because the church in our great cities has first forgotten the poor; she has dissociated herself from them. The very name of missionary is a serious bar to confidence and to any free interchange of sympathy."

He also quotes the rector of the "wealthiest Protestant church in the world" to this effect: "The church was not founded with the direct view to moral culture, class elevation, etc. I have no confidence in the judgment or wisdom of those who tell us that the church must try to reach the masses, purify politics, elevate the laboring classes." This is equivalent to INGALL'S famous saying that the purification of politics is an "irridescent dream." However, it is not our purpose to discuss the Rev. Mr. RAINSFORD. We have simply introduced him here as a sort of a prologue to a sermon by the Rev. P. F. MACLEOD, a parallel sermon in so far as he rebuked the coldness of professing Christians. Mr. MACLEOD attributed the increasing indifference of the masses to religion to the coldness of the church. "If," said Mr. MACLEOD in effect, "church members were more cordial, if there was more of love thy neighbor as thyself in the churches, church membership might be counted by the million. Men were repelled from the church rather than from CHRIST." There is truth in what Mr. MACLEOD said. The masses are not averse to CHRIST. They are infidels only in so far as the church is concerned. It is a striking fact that the most blatant infidels admit that if a man could have a divine mission, that man was JESUS CHRIST. Newspapers, recognizing their own shortcomings, are in no wise disposed to point to the beams in the eyes of professing Christians, but they may be permitted to say of the churches, that unless they set the example of loving their neighbors as themselves, they cannot expect to find favor in the eyes of the multitude. The whole moral law hinges on the loving of thy neighbor as thyself. If this law was in operation there would be no occasion for the reform measures that are now being mooted. In politics, office holding would be a public trust instead of a private snap. Mr. MACLEOD is to be congratulated for getting down to concrete facts.

FARM DEBT IN CALIFORNIA.

According to the Argonaut, California, in the matter of the accumulation of mortgage indebtedness, is no better off than the other states of the Union. During the last two years mortgages upon real estate increased about $21,000,000 in California, while improvements made upon real estate amounted in value to only about $2,000,000. What has become of the rest of the money? The Argonaut ventures the answer, "that the farmers being unable to make a living for themselves by their labor, are compelled to live on their capital." Ordinarily, this answer would not be admissable, for it is to be presumed, that farmers are able to produce enough to make both ends meet, and that, hence, if their mortgage indebtedness has increased, they must have lived extravagantly. But the fact is, that real estate outside of the cities has depreciated in value, which shows that farming has not paid. If farming had been a remunerative business and a mortgage debt had been piled up at the same time, then it might be urged that the farmers had been extravagant; that their indebtedness was the consequence of their own folly. But such is not the case. Farm property in California has depreciated from $408,000,000 to $388,000 in two years. This could never have happened had farm products brought a fair profit on the cost of raising. It seems to be fairly well demonstrated that extravagance is not the cause of the farmers' misfortunes. But what has made farming unremunerative in California? There is no state in the Union where it costs less to operate a farm than in California. The causes are various. It may have been over production, but we had sooner believe that wheat and fruit syndicates whose policy is to force prices down are the real causes, to which may be added, the exhaustion of the soil consequent of the non use of fertilizers. California's market is as broad as the world. She has a perennial market for her wheat in England, and her canned fruits have a world wide sale. California, least of all the States should suffer for the want of a remunerative market. But since the failure of the Comstock lode to furnish occupation for speculators, they have devoted their attention to farm products as a means of turning an honest penny, and they have made prices regardless of the law of supply and demand. What the result will be if this state of affairs is permitted to continue is as plain as daylight. The farmers will soon become bankrupt and landlordism will eventuate. There is need of Farmers Alliances. Middle men are convenient for the farmer, but they are parasites. They are the men who "cinch" the producer on the one hand and the consumer on the other.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the press to the effect that 54 Catholic members have been returned to the new House of Commons. As a matter of fact there will be 68 Catholic members in the new House. Nova Scotia has elected 5, New Brunswick 4, Prince Edward Island 2, Quebec 53, Ontario 3 and Manitoba 1.

The Canadian system of ballotting at elections has been adopted, more or less completely, by 21 States of the adjoining Union. In all cases it has given entire satisfaction. Our "cousins," however unwilling to admit that anything good can come out of Canada, always speak of the ballot as the "Australian system."

Major EDWARDS, who was a professor at the Royal Military College, Kingston, and who ran as a Single Tax candidate at the recent election, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. The Major will leave for England shortly. It is said the Government is not favorable to having so pronounced a land nationalization advocate as Major EDWARDS seems to be. The Government wants no servants who have personal convictions opposed to theirs.

The Manitoba Legislature unanimously passed a resolution in favor of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States. All the Conservative members, including the late premier, the late Hon. J. Norquay, voted for it. This fact offers a pretty clear indication of the honest convictions of the people of the prairie province on the trade question, and also of the insidious influences that must have been at work to have induced them, while holding such views, to return four Conservatives and one Liberal in the recent elections.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED.

The New Orleans Affair to be Sifted to the Bottom.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A special from Washington to the World says: There is good reason to believe that the government has decided to go to the bottom of the New Orleans affair, and with that end in view has sent to that city a number of the best trained detectives in its employ, who are to act in connection with the United States attorney there and report to him. The whole matter is to be carefully investigated, beginning with the assassination of Chief Hennessy and ending with the killing of the accused men and the charges as to the existence of the Mafia in New Orleans. The charges of bribing the jurors, whose verdict stirred the people to violence, and the quarrels between rival detective agencies there are all to be weighed and reported upon by this experienced force in the government's pay. This course has been determined upon, it is said, because Mr. Blaine realizes that in the end, in order to be able to deal with the claims of Italy, he must know the whole story.

THE RING.

HALL WANTS TO MEET CORBETT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Jim Hall is willing to take Peter Jackson's place, in the event of the colored champion being unable to meet Corbett. Hall thinks that he can give Corbett at least a hard fight, and is serious in his desire to act as a substitute for the California Club affair, if Peter's sprains and bruises from his recent accident prevent him from filling his engagement.

KILLED BY A PUGILIST.

JERSEY CITY, April 6.—Edward Hollinger, better known as "Big Hollinger," the colored pugilist, yesterday morning forced himself into a room where his wife and two children were in bed and brutally murdered his wife by beating her head and face again and again with a hatchet. Hollinger then tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a knife, but he only succeeded in severely wounding himself when he was arrested. His wife's refusal to live with him on account of cruel treatment caused the tragedy.

The operations of the sewerage contractor at Clover Point are interfering with the resumption of the Saturday afternoon shooting matches. A week or so more will, however, see some definite arrangement arrived at. The practice matches were to have commenced Saturday week next.

Lawn Tennis.

At the annual meeting of the Victoria lawn tennis club, held recently, the following gentlemen were elected office bearers for the ensuing year: Mr. Musgrave, president; Mr. H. E. Croasdaile, vice-president; Mr. William Ward, treasurer; and Mr. H. Hayes, secretary. These gentlemen were all re-elected. The executive committee consists of Rev. Arthur Beanlands, Mr. H. Coombe and Mr. B. H. T. Drake. From the secretary and treasurer's reports it was shown that the club was in a thoroughly satisfactory and encouraging condition, both financially and numerically. It was enabled to take forward to the new year a good balance and a strong membership. The list now numbers over seventy. Mr. Mesher was awarded the contract for the construction of two new courts, (wooden, 1½x3 inch plank) 120 by 100 feet, on the grounds at Belcher street. Play will no doubt be commenced as soon as the courts are finished. The tournament will take place in August.

Henry VIII.

A full house, as was expected would be the case, witnessed Henry VIII last night, and if the applause which was given the leading characters may be taken as a criterion, none of the audience went home feeling otherwise, than that the expectations inspired by the daily press had been fully realized. There is no gainsaying the excellence of the acting of Mr. Warde and his support, Mrs. Bowers. Cardinal Wolsey is a difficult character to impersonate, as must always be the case with a man who combines in about equal parts the politician and the priest. But Mr. Warde was equal to the interpretation of both sides of Wolsey's character, though perhaps he was the strongest and most vivid in the last scene, where Wolsey laments his fallen greatness, to Cromwell, and conscience stricken bewails having served his king better than his God. Mrs. Bowers, as Katherine, was superb. The discarded and heart-broken Queen was brought to life again. Mrs. Bowers was equal to every phase of passion and grief that a discarded and heart-broken Queen would be supposed to experience and manifest. To-night this talented company will give Virginius, an incident in the history of Rome with which most people are familiar. In this play there is in many respects wider scope for the powers of the leading characters than in Henry VIII. Again to-night a full house should greet the Warde-Bowers company. It may not be soon again that Victorians will have an opportunity to patronize a company which so rarely are what they represent themselves to be.

A DOUBLE BARRELED MORAL.

Is Attached to This Story, Which Victorians Should Take to Heart.

A story with a double barreled sort of moral is told by Mr. Piper, who lately took up his residence here with his family, and bids fair to become one of Victoria's solid citizens. The explanation is found in the fact that some months ago Mr. Piper happened to visit British Columbia. He didn't run the gauntlet of all the stories one hears on the Mainland about the dangers attending a visit to Victoria. He braved them like a man determined to know the worst, and the worse stories were told him of that terrible old place Victoria, the more his curiosity was aroused, and the more he wanted to see the city. Accordingly though gravely warned that he would take a couple of seasons' crops of moss on his back with him as the result of his visit, he clenched, not his teeth, but his grim sack and boarded the Islander for Victoria. He threw off the fog and rain at the Mainland wharf as he took off his mackintosh and threw it to the crowd who warned him not to take the fatal step.

In due course the Islander pulled away from the shore, and half an hour afterwards Mr. Piper was in brilliant sunshine, which lasted him till he got within the same distance of the Mainland on his return. Mr. Piper found Victoria buried in roses and other sweet smelling flowers. The streets wore a brisk appearance, the stores were filled with purchasers, and the pedestrians moved along as though they had some object in view. The street cars whizzed along full of passengers, and vans, carts, carriages and other vehicles made it interesting for the short-sighted pedestrian attempting to cross the streets. The visitor looked at every one's back for the moss that he had heard so much of from his Mainland friends, but if it was there, it was covered by the comfortable and tastefully arranged costumes of the ladies or the artistically made coats of the gentlemen, while the workingmen were moving too quickly to admit of any vegetation taking place on their spinal column. In the business portion Mr. Piper found everything of a solid business-like nature, while in the residential part of the city there was to be found everything that could make home lovely. "Hum," he said, "this is peculiar moss they've got on their backs. I must stay here a short time and see how things go."

After a couple of weeks Mr. Piper went home to England again (he had to reclaim his mackintosh, umbrella and rubbers at the Mainland) and persuaded his family to come out and settle here. He disposed of his property and started across the Atlantic. On the the way there was some talk about Vancouver Island, and Victoria particularly. The captain of the great ocean greyhound gravely advised Mr. Piper not to go to such a place. Why, it was in the Arctic regions, and the people were frozen up six months in the year!!

"Have you ever been there?" queried the warned one.

"No;" said the captain, "but I've been told by captains and others what an awful place it is."

Mr. Piper cleared up matters by explanation; but this, with the Mainland incident, set him thinking that Victorians would lose nothing by being better known.

Valuable Chickens.

F. Sturdy last evening shipped to Boston via the N. P. R. express, three thoroughbred Golden Spangled Hamburg chickens, every one of them beauties. The animals, like all of Mr. Sturdy's, are well bred as the value of them, which is $70, will verify. If Victoria builds up a trade in chickens like these she will soon have a name among chicken fanciers.

Already some of the leading artists of the city have promised their services, including Miss McGregor, who has already made a reputation in this city; Mrs. Turnbull, an old favorite; Mr. J. G. Brown, the distinguished leader of the First Presbyserian choir; the Victoria Glee Club and many others. The concert is under the able management of Miss McAdam.

THE WORLD'S GREAT FAIR.

Its Bearing on the Politico-Economic Questions of the Day.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The chief characteristic which distinguishes American business methods the world over is the liberal use of every means of advertising which ingenuity can advise. No spot of nature is considered too sacred, no tradition too revered, no institution too hallowed, and no outlay too extravagant to be beyond the advertisers' reach. The school, the home, the social system are regarded equally legitimate as channels for commercial enterprise, as the newspaper, the street car, the workshop, the store window, the river bank or the precipice. The wealth of a dozen Monte Cristos would fall short of a tithe of the amount spent yearly in advertising American industries, while it is doubtful whether the traveling expenses of every prince in Europe would equal that of the commercial travelers of America. During the year of the Paris Exposition it was estimated that Americans abroad spent $70,000,000, but fabulous as this sum appears, it does not equal the amount expended by the traveling representatives of American commercial interests at home.

It therefore goes without saying that the Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago in 1893, will be utilized to its fullest extent as an advertising medium. The opportunity it will afford for the display of manufactures cannot but recommend it to every business man in America, and already in every workshop in the country the question of representation has been the subject of serious study. Whatever considerations of patriotism, local pride, or philanthrophy may actuate the Chicago promoters of the enterprise, it is certain that the great incentive to exhibitors will be the opportunity of displaying their wares to so many millions of people, and the advantages accruing to success in the competition attending such an exhibit.

TO STIMULATE LOCAL PRIDE.

In addition to the advantage of a colossal advertisement, there are other considerations which should tend to arouse a spirit of enthusiasm among all domestic industries in favor of the exposition, and breed a spirit of emulation as to which should contribute more largely to the success of that undertaking.

Next to the race for wealth, there is no question which arouses the American people so keenly as that of politics. The tendency in late years has been to a closer blending of economic with political questions in national legislation, and at the present day the people of the United States may be said to be divided into two schools of thought, on a great question of political economy. This fact was duly recognized by the framers of the Act of Congress providing for the World's Columbian Exposition, by which it was ordained that, in order to avoid anything like a partisan complexion in the administration of the Exposition, the two great political parties should be equally represented in the National Commission. In conformity with the spirit of the Act of Congress the only question which is tabooed in the preparations being made for the Exposition is that of partisan politics.

This, however, will not preclude advocates of both schools of political economy putting forth their best endeavors to efface by educational process as far as possible, the errors of judgment, into which they consider their opponents have fallen. Such a spirit of emulation could not but result in a complete exhibition of the progress in manufactures as well as of the natural resources of the country. Furthermore, the presence of foreign exhibitors in competition with Americans will serve the dual purpose of demonstrating to outsiders the commodities and manufactures, which it would be to their advantage to purchase in American markets, and at the same time educate the American manufacturer and farmer in matters wherein they are at a disadvantage.

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITY.

But greater than even the reciprocal advantage of education between producer and manufacturer, American and foreigner, the Exposition as a unifier of the people of the United States will amply repay whatever money may be spent in its preparation. East and west, north and south the people of this country are gradually becoming provincialized as the process of local development creates new centres of interest apart from the capital or metropolitan cities. In the crowded cities of the east hundreds of thousands of people live and die in the belief that the great West is still a rowdy wilderness, peopled only by uncouth semi-barbarians, and in like manner in many western cities the idea of eastern civilization is indelibly associated with that of effeminacy. North and South in like manner are each of them unknown countries to a large percentage of their opposite people. To efface this sectional feeling, the World's Columbian Exposition will be an agent of incalculable potency. Mingled together in one common ground, summoned in honor of an event equally beneficial to all, stimulated by individual interest, and local pride, protectionist and free trader, manufacturer and farmer, easterner and westerner, northerner and southerner, American and foreigner will join hands to make the World's Columbian Exposition an event of which not only the American people, but the world itself and the great nineteenth century may justly feel proud.

WORLD'S CONGRESSES.

Towards this much desired result the World's Congresses to be held during the exposition will be of inestimable benefit. Many of the prominent men of the world in every branch of thought or active endeavor have already signified their willingness to take part in these great assemblages, the effect of which on business progress must be of supreme importance. This concurrent exposition of intellectual with material progress should lend to the Chicago celebration an exceptional interest as the starting point of an era of universal interchange of thought and consequent improvement of the human family, such as the most optimistic and visionary socio-philanthropist could hardly conjecture.

A COMMERCIAL CONGRESS.

As a precursor to such World's Congresses, the forthcoming Commercial Congress of Kansas City is worthy of more than passing attention. The agricultural and mining interests of the western states have within the past quarter of a century developed to such an extraordinary extent that a feeling of unrest has been engendered among farmers and miners, based on a real or supposed inequality in the political economics as affecting their interests. An outgrowth of this feeling has been the prominence given to agricultural interests in the political struggles of the day.

EVERY INTEREST REPRESENTED.

The Commercial Congress of Western States to be held at Kansas City, April 14, will not, however, identify itself with either side of the question now agitating the agricultural states. It merely calls attention to the existence of such feeling, and invites men of all shades of feeling and diversity of business interest to discuss commercial affairs directly or remotely affecting the western agriculturalist, miner or manufacturer. The list of prominent personages invited to take part in the discussion is a guarantee of absolute impartiality. Leading men of both great political parties, representatives of railroads, delegates from every commercial organization west of the Alleghenies, men prominent in every agitation for the amelioration of mankind, statesmen, editors, capitalists, labor representatives, in fact the brainiest men of the country, have been invited to take part in the deliberations of the Commercial Congress to be held at Kansas City from April 14 to April 19. Representatives of the administrative and executive of the World's Columbian Exposition will be among the prominent speakers, and the event is looked forward to as likely to give an impetus to World's Fair enthusiasm by demonstrating the infinite possibilities accruing from free interchange of ideas, opportunity for which will be afforded during the Exposition in 1893.

A FATAL BLAZE.

A Tenement Row Burned and Nine Lives Lost.

ROCHESTER, Pa., April 7.—A most frightful calamity has befallen this place. It occurred early this morning and resulted in nine lives being lost between the Rose building, corner Brighton and New York streets and the railway crossing, where there is a row of cheap frame tenement houses, the first floors of which are occupied as business houses. Shortly after midnight fire was discovered in the lower building and the alarms were sounded. The fire gradually spread to the second and third houses, and in a few minutes all were in flames. But few citizens were on the scene until the fire was well under headway and efforts were made to save the property, but with poor effect, as the buildings were made of highly inflammable material. In the midst of the hottest part of the fire an Italian girl, about sixteen years of age, appeared at the window in one of the buildings and leaped towards the ground, two of the firemen catching her before she struck the ground. Between her sobs she stated that all her father's family were yet in the burning house, but the flames had full control of the building and it was impossible to save them and seven persons perished in the Italian family. The rooms occupied by the Italians were in the centre of the building, and when it was found that lives had been lost, a careful enquiry was made regarding the occupants of the first building to take fire. It was inhabited by a shoemaker, Edward J. Keene, with his family, consisting of a wife and three children. None of the family could be found for a time, but during the height of the excitement Mrs. Keene, with two of her children, arrived from Pittsburg on train No. 17. It was then feared that Mr. Keene and the eldest son were lost. The firemen at once went to work among the burning timbers and soon discovered the charred remains of the father and son close together, but burned to almost an unrecognizable mass. The corpses, with those of the Italians that have been recovered, are lying in a stall in Stye's livery stable. It is thought that the Italians became so confused that they could not find their stairway, which was a narrow one, and to reach it required the opening of two doors in the rear of the building, and they were burned to death. The Italians were very intelligent and worked in the Rochester tumbler works. The fire originated in Keen & Kitchen's. All the household goods, together with Edwards' store, Hall's millinery store, and Keene's shoe shop are destroyed. There is insurance on all the stores. The buildings belonged to John F. Smith and were not insured.

WHITE ROCK, B.C

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Boundary Line and Vancouver, B. C.

It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district.

A handsome hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly.

Several influential and far-sighted corporations have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

Water front lots can now be obtained at low prices.

To introduce this property, we are placing one block of lots on the market for disposal by monthly instalments at nominal figures.

There is little doubt Prof. Strauss as organist and Prof. ick as choirmaster, form as pow- a musical combination as can be found in one church. Organ- ists too often think far more of the display they must make upon their instrument than they do of the worship of the sanctuary, and if the day arrives when the organ (glorious instrument as it is) takes precedence to the soul-stirring praise that emanates from hearts filled with loyal devotion to the Creator, there will need a reformation as great and powerful as that which took place in the days of Luther.

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

If you need a good blood purifier or building up medicine, be sure to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Further information and statements of cures sent free to all who address us as below.

COAL

The New Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., L'd.

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL
(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE
SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY
Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway system.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the company in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of these will have buildings erected on them early next year.
Special Inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.
Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Keremeos, Okanagan and Morisbee Mountain, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Siwash Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernon.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.

To-Day's Calendar.

The programme at the police court this morning consisted of two drunks; one paid his fine and the other got one month behind the bars. Four Chinamen, charged with an infraction of the fire by-law, were remanded until to-morrow.

The Daley Case.

S. P. Mills, solicitor for J. J. Daley, was prepared to go on with his case in the speedy trials court to-morrow, but on account of the Attorney-General's illness it will have to be remanded. A day will be decided upon by the solicitors.

Badly Scared.

An accident that might have resulted seriously, only had the effect of scaring a few Chinamen on the steamer Maude last evening. Some of the gearing used in unloading coal from the steamer Maude snapped and the large tub came down with a crash, badly scaring, but not injuring, the Chinamen working there.

Young People's Meeting.

The young people of the First Presbyterian Church met last evening and listened to a pleasant programme by several of their number. That peculiar production, the "Irresponsible," was the chief item, and was full of instruction as well as interest. There are only two or three more meetings to close the season, and the last of the series will be a grand concert.

A Coast Catch.

The sealing schooner City of San Diego, Capt. Geo. Weston, J. B. Jones and others, owners, arrived yesterday afternoon from her coast cruise. She left San Francisco about the 17th of February, and has been as far north as Hesquoit, on the west coast. She brought in 134 skins, the majority of which were taken off the Columbia river. The Mary Taylor was spoken with 56 skins. The weather outside is reported as still being very rough and the schooners are being tossed about pretty lively.

Jones was re-elected rector's warden for the present year, Mr. Thomas R. Smith being again chosen as the representative of the congregation. Messrs. Coming, Coming, Coming! What? A Garden of Ede

The choicest spot anywhere around Victoria to make a home is undoubtedly in the lovely valley of Cedar Hill. FIR GROVE is situated between the Mount Tolmie and Cedar Hill Road a frontage on both, within one mile from the city. The land is all planted with the choicest varieties of apples, pears, plums and cherries, and, as is well known, Mr. Child has expended a large of money and care in the planting of the trees. The ground has all been well under-drained, the soil is of the richest, and for gardening purposes no finer spot exists. The property is now in the of surveyors, and will be on the market in the course of a few days. As negotiations are in progress to extend the electric railway past this property, now is the time to buy, as prices will na advance with the advent of the railway.
